Want cash for your gold and silver jewelry and coins? Somerset County Gold Buyers pays the most competitive prices in the market. Rest assured, when you work with Somerset County Gold Buyers, it will be a pleasant and profitable experience, without the sales pressure and hassle you may find in a retail store.

Gayle Murawski and her husband, Keith, owners and operators of Somerset County Gold Buyers, have been in business since 2011, and are proud to be family owned and operated. Gayle manages the Whitehouse Station store, and this August, they are celebrating the one year anniversary of the opening of their newest store, located in Branchburg. This store is managed by their daughter, Brittany. Their son, Bryan, manages security for both stores.

Formerly a stay-at-home mom for over 20 years, Gayle went back to work in 2011 with the opening of their first store after having received hands-on training from a friend in the same business in Pennsylvania. "I absolutely love my job", said Gayle. "I love meeting the people that I come in contact with, and love helping them make money."

The Murawski family, residents of Branchburg, attributes their business success to their good reputation and integrity. Gayle said that the business has grown tremendously due to the great number of referrals they have received from existing customers. "We've built relationships with people," said Gayle. "People who have sold us their gold trust and respect us, and we have established a good reputation not only in New Jersey, but also in New York and Pennsylvania."

Gayle explained that all testing is done in front of the customer at the store. She said, "This is the way it is supposed to be done." First, the item is inspected for a marking. Sometimes the item is already marked as 10 karat, 14 karat, 18 karat, etc. Further testing is performed using an acid kit which accurately identifies the karat value. Gayle said that Somerset County Gold Buyers has the highest payout in the area, and most people are pleasantly surprised at the amount of money they walk away with in exchange for their gold and other items.

In-home parties are also available. Parties are a great way for friends and family to come together and socialize over wine and appetizers, while earning money in exchange for gold and silver that they're no longer using. Items are evaluated on the spot, and the hostess receives a percentage of the proceeds. Fund-raising opportunities are always available as well, where clients may donate their proceeds, or a portion of their proceeds, to the charity of their choice.
